

Registration

Registration Deadline:
August 16, 2010

To register:

ABC, Inc.
Attn: Tanya Thurman
550 East Main Street
Rochester, NY 14604
tthurman@abcinfo.org
(t) 585-325-5116 ext. 4104
(f) 585-325-5721

Small Group Session

Please indicate your 1st and 2nd small group session preferences:

Structural Equality In:

- Criminal Justice Arena
- Education Arena
- Employment Arena
- Health Arena

Payment

Make Checks Payable to: ABC, Inc.

Name

Address

Phone #

Method of Payment

- Check Total # Attending: _____
- MasterCard Total Amt. Enclosed: _____
- VISA

Credit Card # Exp. date

Signature

&

The Rochester Initiative for Structural Equality Coalition (R.I.S.E.)

presents

Advancing Structural Equality

Thursday, August 26, 2010

8:30 am – 3:30 pm

RIT Conference Center
5257 W. Henrietta Road

Cost: $15

Includes a continental breakfast and lunch

What is Structural Equality?

Structural equality is a term that refers to an environment wherein there is an absence of institutional policies and or practices that have an inherent, detrimental impact on racial and ethnic minorities.

Guest Speakers Include:

Professor John A. Powell is the Executive Director of the Kirwan Institute for the Study of Race and Ethnicity at The Ohio State University.

Mary Virtue is the Program Director for the Racial Equality and Economic Security Project of the national Community Action Partnership.

Please join us to learn more and discuss this important