

Frederick Douglass International Underground Railroad
Conference and Freedom Festival
Planning Committee

Dr. Alfreda Brown, Chair, Freedom Celebration Committee; Chief Diversity Officer, Office of the President, Rochester Institute of Technology; Board Chair, Workforce Diversity Network

Dr. David Anderson, Chair, Rochester/Monroe County Freedom Trail Commission*

Hanif Abdul-Wahid, Monroe County Department of Planning and Development, Community Liaison-Workforce Development

Ernest Britton, Chief Officer for Community Engagement, the National Underground Railroad Freedom Center

Charlotte Clarke, Director of Community Affairs, 13-WHAM TV

Angela Corley, Director of Freedom Stations, National Underground Railroad Freedom Center

Jean Dalmath, President, Dalmath Associates

Hon. Sandra Frankel, Supervisor, Town of Brighton

Woodrow Greene, Project Director, The Children's Institute

Joseph Hill

Dr. Frederick Jefferson, University Intercessor, Professor Emeritus Warner School, University of Rochester,

Saul Maneiro, Program Officer, The Community Foundation

Josephine M. Perini, Program Director, International Visitor Leadership Program, U.S. State Department

Tim James, Director of Sales, Visit Rochester

Richelle Rodgers, Gallery Director, Baobab Cultural Center

Ruth Rosenberg-Naparsteck, Historian, Herons Bend Productions

Victoria Schmitt, Executive Director, Corn Hill Navigation

Mike Streeter, Executive Director, Workforce Diversity Network

Carl Westmoreland, Senior Advisor for Historic Preservation, National Underground Railroad Freedom Center

The Rochester/Monroe County Freedom Trail Commission is appointed to research the Underground Railroad freedom story, to educate and engage the public in the application of those values in the struggle for freedom today. The Freedom Trail Commission is working in collaboration with Heritage New York Program, Rochester Museum & Science Center and Friends of Mt. Hope Cemetery to establish a regional interpretive center with links to heritage trails and interpretive centers across state and international borders.*